Tracee Anne Loosle is a woman full of God's love and contagious joy. She releases healing and awakening through the intercession of Jesus Christ. As a transformation specialist she ministers prophetically through the power of Holy Spirit, revealing the Father's heart. She is an ambassador of wisdom and love with a breakthrough anointing. As a poet and author her words strengthen, transform, and encourage.

Tracee Anne is the founder and director of Intrepid Heart Ministries.
She shares the joy of life with her incredible husband Randy.

Donna Milham has a passion to truly live a life of holy union with the Lord – to accept and extend His invitation into the intimate places of His Heart – and to share with others the journey of the communing of our hearts and spirits with the Lord. She is a revelatory teacher, always seeking to explore the heights and depths of His Word, seeking to bring forth understanding of the mysteries of His Kingdom. Her desire is for people to know the love of God the Father in an experiential way and to discover their true identity in Christ. She is an author who paints with words what the eyes of her heart see and to bring them forth for others to encounter the realms of His unending love and truth. Donna Milham is founder of Eagle & Dove Ministries and Judah's Roar Church.
